Part 2: Educational Aims of the Programme

The programme is designed to build on existing academic and intellectual attainment and to develop new higher level knowledge and understanding of equine management. In order to support academic progression for learners from a wide range of social and educational backgrounds the programme of study is constructed to help meet the needs of the individual student. The aim of the programme is to build upon prior learning expected to be to National Qualification Framework level 5 in equine related study which may include, but is not limited to:

- equine anatomy and physiology
- equine behaviour
- equine nutrition
- equine exercise physiology
- the equine industry
- business studies

The assessment of this prior learning will be done on an individual basis on application. The assessment will ensure that the learning outcomes previously achieved underpin the educational aims of this programme.

The programme will prepare the learner with a foundation for lifelong learning and enable them to:

- Access a coherent programme of study in equine management underpinned by current research;
- Build on acquired scientific principles to develop a knowledge and understanding of the equid in health and welfare and use this knowledge to study horses in the context of present day industry and environment;
- Improve on intellectual skills of critical evaluation, analysis and synthesis in order to be able to think constructively and reflectively, and propose sound and reasoned solutions to problems;
- Choose from a range of options, while maintaining a coherent programme of study;
- Be prepared for successful employment, in particular for employment in the equine industry;
- Develop honours degree level transferable skills and be aware of the relevance of those skills to different working environments;
- As future workers, meet the challenges of a changing industry with confidence;
- Undertake an in depth and sustained piece of work with minimal supervision;
- Progress into post graduate study or research;
- Have a strong academic and vocational background and be competent in applying relevant techniques to meet the needs of the equine industry.

Students will develop already existing key skills to enable them to communicate their ideas effectively in a variety of media.

Programme requirements for the purposes of the Higher Education Achievement Record (HEAR)

The BSc (Hons) Equine Management programme has been developed in consultation with employers. Graduates from this programme will have gained a thorough knowledge of multidisciplinary areas of equine management based on theory and will have developed transferable skills that allow them to apply this theory to the management of horses.

Students will have been required to pass core modules that contain investigative skills and will have completed an independent scientific investigation. Additionally, students will have evidenced good knowledge of business management and will have an underpinning understanding of developments within equine science both from scientific and industry perspectives. Students will have also completed various optional modules that include equine behaviour, welfare and ethics, equine therapy and rehabilitation, equine sports medicine and business management specifically for the equine industry.

The programme provides graduates with skills in critical enquiry and evaluation of current processes and practices in the equine management sector. This will enable them to not only acquire the most up to date knowledge relating to their chosen subject areas, but also to use that knowledge to meet the challenges of a changing industry with confidence. In addition, the programme provides opportunities for students to develop generic transferrable skills necessary for employment such as project management, use of technology and the ability to communicate ideas effectively using a variety of media.

Part 5: Student Learning and Student Support

Teaching and learning strategies to enable learning outcomes to be achieved and demonstrated

There is a policy for a minimum average requirement of 15 hours in year one and 12 hours/week contact time over the course of the full undergraduate programme. This contact time encompasses a range of face: face activities as described below. In addition a range of other learning activities will be embedded within the programme which, together with the contact time, will enable learning outcomes to be achieved and demonstrated.

On the BSc (Hons) Equine Management programme, teaching is a mix of scheduled and independent sessions with an emphasis on supporting development of autonomous learning. Students will be expected to engage in a significant amount of independent study during this programme.

Scheduled learning

Includes lectures, seminars, tutorials, project supervision, demonstration, practical classes and workshops; fieldwork; external visits; work based learning; supervised time in studio/workshop. Scheduled sessions may vary slightly depending on the module choices made.

Independent learning

Includes hours engaged with essential reading, case study preparation, assignment preparation and completion etc. Scheduled sessions may vary slightly depending on the module choices made. Although there is no period of compulsory work placement within this programme, students will be given opportunities to engage in valuable industry experiences throughout their programme.

Virtual Learning Environment (VLE)

This specification is supported by a VLE where students will be able to find all necessary module information. Direct links to information sources will also be provided from within the VLE.

Careers

To support learner's career preparations, careers personnel visit the institution on a regular basis and the students can use all the careers on line resources. Tutors will also offer subject specific careers advice through module sessions or individual tutorials. Careers Fairs are arranged periodically to allow students to engage directly with employers from the industry sector.

Description of any Distinctive Features

The BSc (Hons) Equine Management programme provides graduates of an equine-related Foundation Degree or HND with the opportunity to gain an Honours degree level qualification within one year of academic study. Students from a range of backgrounds are invited to join the programme and by attaining this higher level qualification students will have an increased opportunity of employment success within this growing and competitive professional sector.

The purpose of the programme is to build on existing academic and intellectual attainment through academic study and to develop higher knowledge and understanding within the equine field. The programme design includes compulsory modules to ensure that all students that graduate from this programme have attained the skills and understanding appropriate to Equine Management and the compulsory module, the Dissertation, ensures students gain appropriate Honours degree research skills. The student will obtain an increased awareness of the current issues in the equine industry and evaluate this information in light of up-to-date research. The ability to choose option modules from the Field of Equine Science allows the student the opportunity to build upon previous study and tailor their level 6 study to their individual career path.

Part 5: Student Learning and Student Support

Distinctive to the institution is the wide provision of opportunity. The student can engage in a variety of different learning environments. Individuals learn through different methods, hence a range of teaching and assessment techniques are used throughout the programme. Theoretical lectures, practicals (computer based, laboratory and yard), seminars and debates, industry based visits and guest speakers from within the industry enhance the students' academic knowledge, whilst giving the student the opportunity to practice and develop applied skills needed for industry. A wide range of assessment types are utilised within the modules offering students the opportunity to excel through written examinations and assignments, oral assessments, poster defence and practical application.

The institution prioritises student support. Key to that support is the tutorial system. Each student has a year tutor who guides the student throughout their study and will be key for the students when choosing modules. Students are also strongly encouraged to utilise, and engage in, face-to-face tutorials with either their allocated personal tutor or their subject specific module tutors in order to support their academic development. Student Advisors are also available for more general academic support needs alongside the institutions Welfare Officer and the onsite counselling service provided by the institution. Students receive a diary and study skills guide from the institution at the start of the academic year which introduces key aspects of studying at the institution. Students receive a programme handbook and for each module studied, a module guide. Assessment offences information and study/ examination guidance is also provided to all students.

Learners are supported throughout the programme via the Virtual Learning Environment (VLE), the institutions online web-based support. Access is available remotely so that the VLE provides students with access to academic materials relevant to their chosen modules and programme. Students are kept up-to-date with information via the announcements areas on the VLE or via the SMS text message service with which the institution has engaged with.

The institutions library service is highly supportive of the academic disciplines within the equine field and provides an extensive range of paper (textbooks and periodicals) and electronic (e-book, periodicals and database) resources relevant to the subject area. The library service and the programme teams are in constant contact to ensure that up-to-date, relevant material which supports the students' academic journey is provided.

Part 6: Assessment

This module will be assessed according to the Academic Regulations published for the academic year on the website <http://www.hartpury.ac.uk>

Assessment Strategy

Assessment strategy to enable the learning outcomes to be achieved and demonstrated:

Module assessments are designed to apply the knowledge and experience gained from a wide range of learning opportunities to a real world context using a range of skills.

In line with the institutions commitment to facilitating equal opportunities, a student may apply for alternative means of assessment if appropriate. Each application will be considered on an individual basis taking into account learning and assessment needs. For further information regarding this please refer to the VLE.

Part 7: Entry Requirements

Applicants will have achieved entry criteria appropriate for the year of entry, which can be found through the institutions website (www.hartpury.ac.uk).

We also welcome applicants from a diverse range of backgrounds who do not have the entry requirements outlined above. Applicants will be considered on the basis of evidence of personal, professional and educational experience which indicates an applicant's ability to meet the demands of the programme. Where appropriate experience or learning has been gained prior to enrolment on the programme RPL/RPEL may be possible.

Applicants whose first language is not English must also gain a minimum IELTS score of 6.0 prior to entry onto the programme.

Part 8: Reference Points and Benchmarks

Description of how the following reference points and benchmarks have been used in the design of the programme:

QAA UK Quality Code for HE

Has been used to define the minimum level of achievement that students need to achieve to succeed on this programme and achieve the qualification. It has also been used to inform the academic quality of the programme and enhance the quality of the learning opportunities and the assessment methods used to measure achievement on the programme.

The Standards and Guidelines for Quality Assurance in the European Higher Education Area (ESG) 2015

The programme has been designed considering how it addresses aspects of part one of the ESG. In particular the programme has been designed so that it meets 'the objectives set for them, including the intended learning outcomes. The qualification resulting from a programme should be clearly specified and communicated, and refer to the correct level of the national qualifications framework for higher education and, consequently, to the Framework for Qualifications of the European Higher Education Area.'

Additionally the design and teaching, learning and assessment strategy within this programme encourages the programme to be 'delivered in a way that encourages students to take an active role in creating the learning process, and that the assessment of students reflects this approach'.

Hartpury 2020 Strategy and the Teaching and Research Excellence Strategy 2017-2021

These have been used in designing this programme to ensure that the programme is: learning-centred; underpinned by sound health and safety practices and informed by research and professional practice; inclusive, flexible and accessible, exemplified in particular by the part-time and accelerated study routes; and, provides a diverse assessment diet. Furthermore, the programme aims to produce graduates who: know and value themselves as open-minded, reflective and inter-dependent learners, and participants, employees, self-employed professionals and entrepreneurs in global settings and as global citizens; and, reflect on their own learning and practice, who value others as collaborators in their learning and its exchange.

Assessment within the programme: is an integral part of a dynamic learning and teaching process and not separate from it; plays a key part in the rigorous setting and maintaining of academic standards; provides all students with the entitlement to parity of treatment; makes no distinction between different modes of study; ensures that progression is achieved by credit accumulation and the completion of pre-requisites and co-requisites; recognises different module learning in different forms of assessment; and, affords students the maximum opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge, skills, competencies and overall strengths through a variety of assessed activities.

Professional and Vocational Interaction: Equine Vocational Panel Meetings

Department of Equine Vocational Panel meetings involve discussions about the purpose of the programme, its distinctiveness as a programme and the skills and knowledge needed to ensure the programme is current and relevant to employers.

This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if he/she takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the learning outcomes, content and teaching, learning and assessment methods of individual modules can be found in module specifications, available on the Institution's website.
