Reading Strategy

Essential reading
Essential material will be indicated to the student via pre-course material, module guides and through their accessing a dedicated VLE programme presence. No requirement for the purchase of set text(s) will be made unless explicitly stated and

	students will have full access to library services, online applications, and inter-library loans. Further reading Students are expected to identify all other reading relevant to their chosen topic for themselves. They will be required to read widely using the library catalogue, a variety of bibliographic and full text databases, and Internet resources. Many resources can be accessed remotely. The purpose of this further reading is to ensure students are familiar with current research, classic works and material specific to their interests from the academic literature and wider professional sources. Access and skills Formal opportunities for students to develop their library and information skills are provided within the induction period and student skills sessions. Additional support is available through online resources. This includes interactive tutorials on finding books and journals, evaluation information and referencing. Sign up workshops are also offered.
Indicative Reading List	The following list is offered to provide the validators /accrediting bodies with an indication of the type and level of information students may be expected to consult. As such, its currency may wane during the life span of the module specification. However, current advice on readings will be available via other more frequently updated mechanisms. Anderson, A. Part 3: Assessment
Assessment Strategy	This module will be assessed according to the approved Hartpury Academic Regulations including any specific regulations detailed within the student's programme specification. For component A students are required to engage in a professional discussion that analyses their practical work and development while on their placement and their wider studies. They will be required to articulate and analysis their performance and provide supporting evidence in the form of a brief portfolio. The experiences from component A will form the basis of a reflective report for Component B. Within this reflection it is expected that students will analyse the relationship between theoretical knowledge and practical performance Opportunities for formative assessment exist for each of the assessment strategies used. Verbal feedback is given and all students will engage with personalised tutorials setting SMART targets as part of the programme design. Assessment includes a competent member of staff to assess in a professional practice set up.

	A student may apply for alternative means of assessment if appropriate. Each application will be considered on an individual basis taking into account learning and assessment needs. For further information regarding this please refer to the VLE.
